Module 3: pre-module quiz

1. In your own words, briefly describe the term “stakeholder”.

2. Which of the below is an objective of risk communication?
   a. Inform to influence behaviours during events
   b. Involve actors in decision-making
   c. Raise awareness of risks and hazards
   d. Improve relationships
   e. All of the above

3. What are some mechanisms that can be used to coordinate with stakeholders? List at least 3.

4. In your own words, please define “multisectoral coordination” and the “One Health” concept.

5. Your agency has recently developed a new strategic risk communication plan for sharing information with external partners. You want to make sure all partners are aware of the procedures and processes in the plan, but have limited resources. Which type of exercise might be most appropriate? Select one, and briefly explain why.
   a. Drill:
   b. Table-top exercise:
   c. Simulation/Functional exercise:
   d. Full-scale exercise:
   e. Other:

6. Your agency has recently updated its threat and hazard assessment, and concluded there is a substantial risk from power outages. As a result, a new back-up generator is installed. Which type of exercise might be most appropriate to ensure minimal interruption in power supply? Select one, and briefly explain why.
   a. Drill:
   b. Table-top exercise:
   c. Simulation/Functional exercise:
   d. Full-scale exercise:
   e. Other:

Please send completed quiz to your facilitator.